This past year is almost a blur. New faces and new cases but no less demands on our time. With the emergence of the Vaccine Policy, it was the last straw for many activists and as we have all witnessed, guidance and implementation did not make it easier on our members and activists.

Although the region’s locals are in conformance, it will be difficult to keep them that way as outreach is challenging and, in some cases non-existent. The demands on the locals are interfering with work-life balance. The executives have difficult decisions to make, and many are finding the work too much and have stepped back. There have been multiple discussions about this issue, and we are no closer to a viable solution, but we know there is one.

Sincere thanks to the team and the local executives for supporting the members and supporting each other. Many hands help lighten the load. The priority for the next year is supporting the volunteers with work-life balance and joy.

As mentioned last year, I am forever grateful for the support our region has received from the labour relations team. Their expertise, professionalism, and guidance are what keep us going. Regrettably, the volume of requests for help is not slowing down. My heartfelt gratitude goes to those who support this region.

Below is a sample of my activities, it does not include day to day member support, grievances, informal consultations, or committee work with the PSAC NCR region.

In solidarity,

Virginia Noble.
